EVENT OVERVIEW

STRICTLY EMBARGOED 6PM TUESDAY 30 MAY, 2017

Queensland Music Festival: Lior

Acclaimed singer-songwriter Lior will perform two intimate shows at Brisbane's Old Museum during Queensland Music Festival (QMF) and at The J Theatre Noosa during the annual NOOSA alive! festival.

Renowned for his beautiful voice and exquisite compositions, Lior burst onto the Australian music scene in 2005 with his stunning ARIA-nominated debut Autumn Flow.

Since then Lior has toured the world, collaborated with Australian composer, performer and conductor Nigel Westlake on the song cycle Compassion, written for theatre, performed in the musical Fiddler on the Roof and penned the closing theme to ABC Kids' show Giggle and Hoot.

With his fifth studio album set to be released soon, this seasoned performer, alongside a string quartet, will serenade audiences on Saturday 22 July in Brisbane and Sunday 23 July in Noosa with stunning songs that radiate truth and sincerity.

QMF Artistic Director Katie Noonan said Lior would be a memorable evening with one of Australia's most magical voices.

"Lior's lilting melodies and gorgeous voice will soar in the Old Museum's heritage-listed performance space for one of the most intimate nights of this year's festival," Ms Noonan said.

Lior is presented by Queensland Music Festival and Brisbane City Council in association with NOOSA alive!
