EVENT OVERVIEW

STRICTLY EMBARGOED 6PM TUESDAY 30 MAY, 2017

Queensland Music Festival: Journey Along the Silk Road

Southern Cross Soloists, one of Australia's leading chamber ensembles, invites Brisbane audiences to take a musical journey along the ancient Silk Road on Sunday 23 July during Queensland Music Festival.

A collaboration combining the skills of Queensland's leading professional musicians and students from MacGregor State High School and The University of Queensland, Journey Along the Silk Road will feature a series of workshops culminating in a concert of fresh new compositions reflecting the dynamic cultural exchanges and human connectedness that were a feature of this famed route.

In a hybrid program that will mix world music with classical chamber music, audiences will be taken on a mini 'Silk Road' journey that will highlight the importance and influence of cultural exchange, both in the past and today.

Journey Along the Silk Road is presented by Queensland Music Festival, Brisbane City Council, Southern Cross Soloists and The University of Queensland School of Music.
