A FAURÉ FORAY

FROM THE LONDON BARBICAN CENTRE TO A BRISBANE BBQ

DeClassified Music starts its 2015 Season on August 1 at FireWorks Gallery with the acclaimed Sydney-based Australia Piano Quartet straight from their London debut at the Barbican Centre for their only Brisbane performance for 2015.

Known for their innovative approach and presentation of high quality performances, the Australia Piano Quartet is lauded for their "empathy, technical ease and exemplary musicianship" and they have quickly established a reputation as one of Australia's premier and most exciting chamber music ambassadors.

Gabriel Faure's passionate Piano Quartet No. 2 will be the main romantic meal on this program, balanced by the purity of Mozart and freshness of Australian composer Pozniak's recently commissioned Bordersongs.

Before enjoying this musical menu, you are invited to enjoy the warm hospitality and colourful surroundings of FireWorks Gallery which showcases Australian contemporary Indigenous and non-Indigenous artwork.

A Fauré Foray is presented by Queensland Music Festival, Brisbane City Council and DeClassified Music.
